

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, but I am not dealing with that one right now. That is going to be in one amendment for the whole code later on. Is that okay? All I am doing now is changing the spouse, "wife" to "spouse".

SENATOR MARSH: Okay, but let's have it be the singular, "to the spouse", all right.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, that is fine, but as I say, that is being done at one time for the whole code.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: John, I have got a question. How many times do you change it in this section, four times? Did I follow you correctly? I think there is four.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I don't know. Wherever it says it, that is where it should be changed. One, two, I missed one of them. I missed one. In line 16, there is another one I didn't get. One, two, three...

SENATOR BARNETT: And there is one in 20.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, there is one in 20.

SENATOR BARNETT: There should be four of them, I believe.

SENATOR DeCAMP: One in 16, and one in 11 and there is one in 9. Four of them.

SENATOR BARNETT: Right, okay, just make that notation, Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I missed a couple of them so there is a couple more in there.

SENATOR BARNETT: Would you make notation that there is four of those places that should be changed in that section. I think Senator DeCamp recognizes that now. Lines 9, 11, 16 and 20.

CLERK: He has 9, 16 and 20.

SENATOR BARNETT: And it should be line 11, also.

CLERK: All right.

SENATOR DeCAMP: While he is doing that and as long as Jerry is on the phone and not noticing, you may have read the Attorney General's opinion on the abortion thing which said everything we did in here on our new amendments was constitutional as we claimed and everything we removed was unconstitutional, as we claimed.

PRESIDENT: Any close here, Senator DeCamp? The question is the adoption of this amendment of Senator DeCamp. Have you voted? Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, 22 present and not voting, 1 absent and not voting. That is all the amendments we have to Article 7, Mr. President.
